

Hebrews Chapter 12 Diagram

12:18 You have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that is burning with fire ; to darkness, gloom and storm; to a trumpet blast or to such a voice speaking words that those who heard it begged that no further word be spoken to them, ... The sight was so terrifying that Moses said, "I am trembling with fear."

Old Covenant

God made a covenant with the Israelites at Mt. Sinai and sealed it with the blood of animals indicating that anyone who breaks this covenant must die.

God became flesh and died so that the Old Covenant would come to an end. Christ represented God in His divinity and the Jews in His humanity . He was uniquely qualified to represent both parties and His death ended this covenant relationship.

12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion , to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God . You have come to thousands upon thousands of angels in joyful assembly , to the church of the firstborn , whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the judge of all men , to the spirits of righteous men made perfect , to Jesus the mediator of new covenant ...

New Covenant

Now God could enter into a New Covenant with all nations. Christ's blood seals this new covenant . He will never die again and those who have faith in Him will never die. Therefore, this is an everlasting covenant.
