For 12 long years the Fearful Five kings were subject to the Fabulous Four kings.

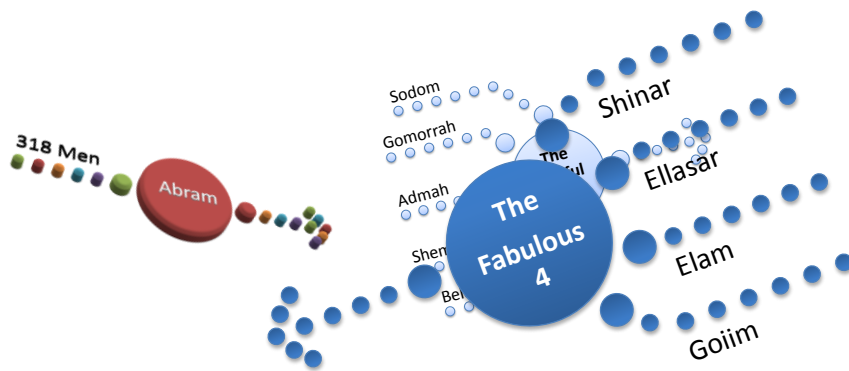

In year 13 the Fearful Five kings rebelled. In year 14 the Fab Five defeated the Rephaites, the Zuzites, the Emities and the Horites, the Amalekites, and the Amorites to prove that the Fabulous 4 were still on top

The Fearful Five got ready to fight the Fab Four in the Valley of Siddim. But the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah ran away, leaving their cities to be captured by the Fab Four. Lot was also captured since he was living in Sodom.

This now becomes Abram's War.

Abram takes only 318 of his own men and defeats the Fabulous Four. He recovers all the people (including Lot) and goods that had been taken from the Fearful Five.

He gives 10% of everything to Melchizedek, priest of God Most High. But when the king of Sodom offered Abram all the goods in exchange for the people Abram refused to accept anything from him so that no one would ever think the king of Sodom made Abram rich.
