Job Descriptions

Field Crew: Working under the guidance of the Event Coordinator, the field crew plays the most vital role in the entire operation of the tournament. We are looking for a handful of dedicated individuals that would be willing to help set up and take down light to moderate weighted equipment needed to run the event. Start times will vary depending on the day, typically an hour and half before the first game starts and after the last match ends.

Technical Officials and Judges: Working under the guidance of the Technical Director, the Technical Official is responsible for assisting in the running of the match from the technical table. Prior to the match, Technical Officials will assist with the set up of the field, measuring of sticks and ensure all players are properly dressed. During the match, their duties will include managing the timing of the match, accurately recording the game proceedings (goals, substitutions, warning cards, etc) onto score sheets, monitoring substitutions and penalty times, as well as ensuring proper behavior is exhibited amongst the teams, managers and coaches. Upon conclusion of the match, Technical Officials will ensure that game sheets have been filled out properly, all necessary people have signed off on the match and that the field is properly maintained prior to the next game. Interested candidates should have a good understanding of the game of field hockey. Previous experience is an asset but not necessary.

Ball Chasers: Working under the guidance of the Event Coordinator and Technical Director, ball chasers are responsible for chasing after balls that go out of play. This job is perfect for active kids and teens that are interested in the game and that want to get involved.

Time commitment varies depending on the interest of the candidate, the position of interest and scheduling requirements.
