Rosetta Stone Pricing for The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod

Subscriptions $79 per learner

A subscription is tied to an individual student or learner. The subscriptions have access on and off campus and through multiple devices such as laptops, desktops, or iPads. The subscriptions are flexible because they allow different languages in the school. Also, they can be transferred to other learners throughout the year. The subscriptions are good for twelve months. Any order of less than 10 subscriptions must have prior approval from Kathy Fangmann.

Site Licenses

A site license allows you to tie a subscription to all students and staff in your building. Pricing is based on the site population. The subscriptions under a site license act the same way as mentioned above. Additional discounts will be applied if LCMS has more than 10 schools sign up for a site license.
