JOSEPH T. HUBBELL

Leelanau County Prosecutor

PROVEN EXPERIENCE:

Since elected prosecutor, Joe Hubbell appeared in all courts, including the Michigan Court of Appeals and Michigan Supreme Court, securing convictions and successfully representing crime victims. Since being elected in 2004, Joe has run the office in a fiscally responsible manner by consistently being under budget every year. He has supported children and young families by collecting past due child support and by his service with the Traverse Bay Children's Advocacy Center. In the last year alone, Joe has collected over $150,000.00 in restitution for Leelanau County crime victims.

ENDORSEMENTS:

Retired Michigan State Police Det/ First Lt Amos Horton, Suttons Bay Michigan:

I was involved in law enforcement for 31 years. I retired from the MSP in 2010 as Detective First Lieutenant with the 7th District Headquarters. I had the opportunity to work with prosecutors from all over the state of Michigan involving difficult and complex criminal cases. Leelanau County Prosecutor Joseph Hubbell is a committed hard working prosecutor who knows how to effectively try a criminal case.

Linda Spears, Mother, Northport, Michigan:

When Joe Hubbell came into office in 2006 he assisted me and my children in collecting past due child support. Since Joe has been in office he has actively collected child support for parents and children in the county. I support Joe for re-election as Leelanau County Prosecutor.

FAMILY:

Prosecutor Hubbell resides in Centerville Township with his wife Amy, and their three children; Emily, Timothy, and Grace.
