

NICHOLAS M. CUSHMORE, ARM

Production Specialist

Nick is a graduate of Denison University with a Bachelor of Arts majoring in History, and holds the Associate in Risk Management (ARM) designation. Prior to joining The Graham Company in 2005, Nick was an Associate Account Executive at Aon Risk Management in New York, New York. In that capacity, he delivered day to day service on Global Programs for many Fortune 500 accounts in Aon's Global Business Unit.

Since beginning his career at Graham, Nick has performed in various roles within the company. Originally hired as an Account Analyst for an Account Management Unit he transitioned into the new business side of the company to work for the Sales Manager as an Assistant Producer. Nick now acts as a technical resource for the development and training of new producers, participates in continuing education seminars and performs audits for new business quality assurance. He is active in the International Practice Group as well as the Environmental Practice Group. Nick is also currently working towards the Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) designation.

CONTACT INFORMATION:

P: 215.701.5422

F: 215.567.0804

E: ncushmore@grahamco.com