Kentucky: Here We Grow Business Seminar Series

Don't miss this opportunity to attend one of 15 free small business seminars being held across the state. The three-hour event is designed to educate small business owners and lenders, entrepreneurs, economic development professionals and community leaders on the resources available to help start, grow and sustain a small business in Kentucky.

The Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development has partnered with a number of local, state and federal organizations to bring you valuable information that can make a difference in your bottom line.

Numerous businesses have already taken advantage of programs such as the Kentucky Small Business Credit Initiative, the Small Business Tax Credit, the State Trade and Export Program and others to add jobs, increase revenue and lower business costs.

The seminars are free and registration is at the door. Come find out why we think small business is BIG business in Kentucky.

Find out how the Kentucky Cabinet for Economic Development can help you utilize the resources to elevate your business. Call Mark Johnson at 800-626-2930 today!

OUR SEMINAR SERIES WILL BE VISITING THE FOLLOWING CITIES AND WILL BE HELD AT THE LOCAL AREA DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT OFFICE:

- May 7 /// Bowling Green
- May 7 /// Elizabethtown
- May 21 /// Owensboro
- June 4 /// Prestonsburg
- June 18 /// Mayfield
- June 18 /// Hopkinsville

"As a new and growing business, capital is essential for growth. The Small Business Tax Credit program is helping us to re-invest in growing our company."

Scott Waldrop
Tanager Productions, LLC

“These seminars provide a great opportunity for business owners to get their arms around the wealth of programs that can help grow their businesses, whether startups or existing operations.”
