Contest Rules:

- A contestant may only enter once, in a single age group and category. If the contestant performs in more than one category, they must choose one in which to compete.
- More than one person may perform together, but will be judged as a single entry.
- Judges panel will determine the winners based on a blind points system. The decision of the judges will be final.
- Each entry is limited to a total of 3-minutes of performance time. Minimal time will be provided for transitioning acts during the contest, in order to keep things moving.
- Order of performances will be determined through a random selection.
- The contestant must actually perform in the chosen category. No lip-syncing or simulated playing to a recorded track is permitted.
- All material in all three categories MUST be “family friendly” and appropriate for all ages. There is to be no profanity of any kind. Any material found to be inappropriate by the contest managers will be rejected. Costumes must also be deemed appropriate.
- Pre-recorded music accompaniment must be provided, in advance, by the contestant to the contest management. (See submission instructions below.) Pre-recorded “karaoke” style tracks are acceptable, but must be provided by the contestant. Submissions must be on CD or provided as a file on a disk or flash memory stick, or emailed to the address below. Submissions can be returned, if requested, on the day of the contest.
- There may be no submissions of music on any personal player device (iPods, MP3 players, etc.) in advance or on the day of the contest.
- The Relay for Life will supply a covered stage platform, PA system with multiple microphones and music track playback. All other equipment (instruments, costumes, etc.) is the responsibility of the contestant. Minimal electric service is available.
- All contestants under the age of 18 must have a parent or legal guardian sign the entry form.
- ALL entries must be submitted by Friday July 26, 2013 and all music tracks must be submitted by Monday July 29, 2013 in order for the entry to be valid.
