

“The system as a whole feels rock solid and built to last... I can’t imagine living without it...”

Dennis Burger of Residential Systems said of the

LS.32 System:

“I didn’t know beforehand quite how much I would use an outdoor audio system, given my locale and the fact that it’s comfortable outside for roughly three days out of the year.

“...it’s hard to deny the value of the Lumin-Sound system, if only for the fact that there really isn’t anything else on the market quite like it.

“It’s safe to say that Terra doesn’t have a lot of genuine competition on its hands just yet, so it’s nice to see that they got it really right on their first try...”

“I can’t imagine living without it now.”
