

Celebrate the new life of our old friend the Ladd Carriage House!

Preview Party for the Raven and Rose Restaurant

Saturday, January 5, 2:00 to 5:00 PM

1331 SW Broadway

$25.00

A special event benefiting AHC Education Programs generously sponsored by Raven and Rose

Come enjoy the next chapter in the long-running story of the Ladd Carriage House – its new life as Raven and Rose Restaurant. Restaurateur Lisa Mygrant has gloriously outfitted the 1883 building, the only remaining building from the once-expansive William S. Ladd Estate, as a fine dining place, and is hosting a preview benefit for AHC members and friends.

Once threatened with demolition, the Ladd Carriage House is a preservation success story. The Friends of the Ladd Carriage House, under the aegis of the Bosco-Milligan Foundation, was formed to save the iconic building, which was carefully moved offsite in 2008 while the Ladd Tower was built. Following another painstaking move back to its original location, the exterior was restored, and the Carriage House offered for sale. New owner Lisa Mygrant, along with her parents, Cathy and Michael Mygrant as minority owners, purchased the building in 2011 with the intent of creating a restaurant in the grand old Victorian.

Now, they are hosting a preview benefit for AHC members and friends which will include hors d'oeuvres and beverages and a short program about the history of one of Portland's favorite buildings, the complexities of its exterior and interior renovations, and its successful adaptive reuse.

The maximum attendance is 75 people, and you can begin signing up on Thursday, December 6 at www.visitahc.org or by calling the office at 503-231-7264. Please come and join us in celebration of preservation on a grand scale of the Ladd Carriage House, a preview of this exciting new dining destination, and support our 2013 education programs!

Many thanks to Paul Falsetto and Tracey Simpson for helping make this event possible.
