Nomination Form for the “Spirit of La Reina Award”

The “Spirit of La Reina Award” will be given annually to three individuals or couples who represent alumnae parents, current parents and alumnae. Individuals are recognized

- For their personal values which reflect La Reina’s philosophy and spirit, specifically Gospel-living, community and family spirit, loyalty, a global perspective, leadership for justice, integrity, service and responsible citizenship
- For distinguished service to La Reina, service which has had a profound impact on the entire school community over the years.

Current parents, alumnae parents, alumnae and staff may make nominations. Award winners will be determined by the La Reina staff.

This award

- Differs from the Distinguished Alumna Award which recognizes an alumna for sharing her talents with the community.
- Is designed to recognize volunteers, and so current and former staff members are not eligible.
- Will be presented at the annual Parent Guild Auction, held on the first Saturday in November.

Nominations due by July 31, 2013
