

Crisis Response International CRU Requirements

Requirements to be a CRU leader:

- Complete a CRI Basic Disaster Relief Training.
- Complete either one Deployment, Deployment Exercise or an Advanced Training
be approved by CRI Leadership
- Attend National CRU Leadership Summits
- Follow Crisis Response International deployment protocol for local and national responses.

Requirements of a CRU:

- Have a desire to work in relationship and in the values of Crisis Response International.
- Be willing to work with other CRI chapters and work towards their betterment.
- Hold at least one monthly meeting.
- Promote CRI trainings and deployment exercises.
- Provide resources and training in the area of preparedness.
- Be ready to deploy to crisis in your own community.
- Exist to be a place of refuge or deploy to your own communities.
- Work in relationship and a spirit of service to their own community and local disaster response agencies.
- Allow anyone to join your local CRU meeting (however an individual cannot deploy until he/she has been CRI trained).

Crisis Response International CRU Application

Date: _____

Name: _____ CITY / Region

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Phone Number: _____ E-Mail: _____

Date of CRI Basic Training: _____ Location: of Training: _____

Number of trained CRI Responders in your area: _____

CRI Deployment & Advanced Training Experience:

List Existing Relationships in Community: (i.e. Local Church, House of Prayer, Community Leaders, Fire Dept, Police Dept, Rescue etc.)

List of Resources in Your Area: (Buildings, Equipment, Supplies, Trailers, etc.)

Additional Skills, Certifications and Experience of CRI members:
