Summer has turned to Fall and here I am – still waiting for my forever home. I have been here so long that I wonder if it will ever happen. I just don't understand why a wonderful boy like me hasn't stolen someone's heart. All I want in life is love and affection – is that too much to dream for? I love people and nothing makes me happier than being with them. When you see me in my run at the shelter, you may think "that's one crazy pooch" because I do my best to get your attention. Once you put on my harness and I know that I'm going for my walk, I become the perfect gentleman. I love to walk and sniff - there's got to be some hound dog in me somewhere! Just walking with my special someone is one of the most wonderful things in life. Just you and me, walking and talking – life can't get any better than that.

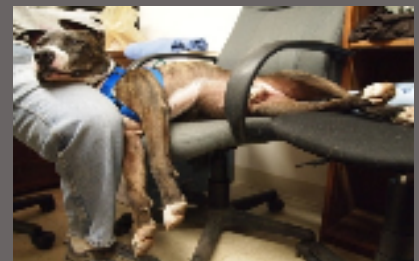

Evenings are for snuggling and reviewing the day. I'm a great listener and will cuddle close so that you know that you are loved. I can be a little picky about my canine companions, but just between you and me, I do have my eyes on a "sweetie" here at the shelter.

I have lived in a home and I'm housebroken and not a chewer. I am not food driven and usually prefer love to treats. I don't take up much room and would do fine in an apartment as long as you took me for lots of walks – I so love to walk. Please come out and see me so that I can show you in person what a great guy I am!
