

William Bennett

Recital and Masterclass

University of Toledo Performing Arts Center | March 12-13, 2012

Mr. Bennett will be giving a rare masterclass and recital sponsored by the Southeast Michigan Flute Association on March 12-13 at the University of Toledo just south of the border of Michigan. SEMFA members may audit/attend both for FREE! Performer applicants read below for information on masterclass slots and fees. Six performers will be selected to perform for Mr. Bennett.

TAPES DUE FEB 15

Applicants will be notified no later than Feb 25

Recital: March 12 at 7p at the University of Toledo Performing Arts Center

Masterclass: March 13, 10a-5p with lunch break from 1-2p at UT Performing Arts Center

One of the foremost musical artists performing today, William Bennett has raised the profile of the flute to that of an instrument capable of a wide range of tonal colours, dynamics, and expression, giving it the depth, dignity, and grandeur of the voice or a string instrument.

He studied in London with Geoffrey Gilbert, and in France with Jean-Pierre Rampal and Marcel Moyse. He has been principal flute in many orchestras including the London Symphony, the Academy of St Martin in the Fields, and the English Chamber Orchestra.
