

RHODE ISLAND
MEDICAL SOCIETY

TAR WARS VOLUNTEER PARTICIPATION FORM

Yes! I would like to join Tar Wars Rhode Island to fight adolescent addiction to tobacco.
Sign me up to be a presenter for the Tar Wars Rhode Island program.

Name _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ Pager _____

Email _____ Fax _____

Contact Person (for scheduling, etc.) _____

Contact Person's Telephone (if different) _____

Best day of week to present _____ Best time of day _____

Number of classroom presentations I would like to give _____

Please note any preferences you have regarding location, schools, etc. Also, let us know if you have a fifth grader and would like to present at your child's school.

Yes, send me a copy of "How to Present Tar Wars" Guidelines

Yes, send me a copy of RIMS' Tar Wars Power Point Presentation

Please return this form to: Catherine Norton, Tar Wars Coordinator
Rhode Island Medical Society, 235 Promenade Street, Providence, RI 02908

Ph: 528-3286 · Fx: 751-8050 · Email: cnorton@rimed.org

Tar Wars is a program of the American Academy of Family Physicians. Developed in 1988, the program is active in the United States and abroad. Tar Wars is coordinated locally by the Rhode Island Medical Society, the Rhode Island Academy of Family Physicians, and the Rhode Island Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics.