

Educating, Inspiring, Empowering Oklahoma Women!

May 20-24, 2011

N.E.W. Leadership

A program of the Women's Leadership Initiative
The Carl Albert Center
University of Oklahoma

N.E.W. Leadership is a residential program that gives undergraduate college women the knowledge and skills to become effective leaders in public service and elective office.

- network with successful women leaders
- develop leadership skills
- learn how to make change through public service

"N.E.W. Leadership helped me realize I could make a difference in the state and how important it is to get involved. Since then, I have been active in organizations across the state that strive to make Oklahoma a better place."

-Latasha Wilson

Oklahoma Oral History Research Program
2005 N.E.W. Leadership Participant

"I came into contact with many female lawyers and judges, sparking my interest in the legal field. I graduated from TU's College of Law in May 2010, and was recently sworn into the Oklahoma Bar Association."

-Sarah R. Hummel

Tulsa Commission on the Status of Women
2006 N.E.W. Leadership Participant

"N.E.W. Leadership is invaluable to this state and this country as we continue to try to propel women into leadership roles in both the public and the private sector... It is clear that women in this country are making large strides, and this program is a big part of that effort."

-Mary Fallin
Governor, Oklahoma
