

Interactive Expedition Zone for Cape Getaway show

Lourensford Wine Estate

(15th to 17th March 2013)

The concept is simple; a visitor to the Getaway expedition zone should be able to visit with an idea for his or her next expedition/adventure, get guidance from world renowned adventurers and head away fully kitted and ready for an expedition.

This is a unique marketing opportunity for anybody with expedition related products and services products; 4x4s, Yachts, tents, off road trailers, mountain bikes, paragliders, surfski, kayaks, Navigation equipment, safety equipment, communication equipment...

The Adventure Zone is an Interactive Zone which opens up the opportunity to create Synergy amongst complementing products / services. By doing this we can all get maximum exposure at the lowest cost possible

Overview of the Expedition Zone

Due to its success in 2012(pic on the right), the expedition zone has increased from about 42 square metres to 200 square meters. (Stand 017). This year the focus is on internationally acclaimed adventurer Peter Van Kets and the Capri-X expedition. Adventure enthusiasts will be invited to attend a series of interactive workshops that demonstrate how expedition/adventure equipment works. Also, they will be invited to shoot the breeze with Pete and other high profile adventurers like Braam Malherber (who ran the Great wall of China) and find out first-hand what they did to make their respective expeditions a success. Their larger than life experiences are powerful and motivating - attending presentations like this normally cost an arm and a leg, they will be presented with our compliments at Getaway to attract people to YOUR stand.

To make the expedition zone work for participating exhibitors tourismZA will provide:

- A large Bedouin tent as a central meet/greet/presentation area complete with audio visual equipment.
- A presentation schedule for adventure enthusiasts – including a buy 1 get one free entry voucher
- A number of lucky draw prizes to motivate visitors to subscribe to the lucky draw newsletter.
