

Thomas Berry Educational Center's SPRING LECTURE SERIES

Circles of Memory

March 23

Professor Daniel Bluestone

Director of Historic Preservation Programs
Professor of Architectural History

Topic: Cultivating Place: The Land and People of Belmead (Talk and Walking Tour)

Stroll down the corridors of time with Dr. Bluestone as he narrates the extraordinary story of a Place, including the contributions of the enslaved people who built Belmead on the James.

2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

April 6

Panel Presentation

Florine Bell, Sandra Morris Kemp, Marty Sakiewicz, Richard Sakiewicz, and Gail Hicks Timberlake

Topic: Belmead Rooted in Community: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow (Talks and Dialogue)

Continue experiencing the story of Belmead on the James as ancestor's speak through the remembered stories of their children and their children's children. Come, listen, and participate — be a part of the on going story.

2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

April 27

Joy Crawford & Sr. Angela T. Lydon

Topic: CLUE: The Wisdom of Teilhard de Chardin & Thomas Berry (Talks, Reflection, and Dialogue)

Spend a day exploring themes of Consciousness, Love, Unity, and Energy in the works of Chardin and Berry. See flyer posted on Thomas Berry Educational Center for more information.

9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

June 1

Patricia C. Gunn, J. D.

Associate Professor of Law, Ohio University Department of African American Studies

Angela T. Lydon, SBS, PhD

Topic: Justice for People & Earth (Talks and Dialogue)

Thinking critically and creatively about past and present issues of social and ecological justice at Belmead on the James and in contemporary society will frame this presentation.

2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Suggested Donation: $20 for each session or free will offering.

Register/pay on-line for each session you will attend.

Pay on-line, using Pay Pal: Go to FrancisEmma.org and click on the Thomas Berry Educational Center.

FrancisEmma, Inc, is a 501C(3) non-profit .
Belmead on the James
5004 Cartersville Road
Powhatan, VA 23139