Directions to the George C. Marshall Conference Center

U.S. Department of State

21st Street between Virginia Avenue and C Street

Washington, D.C.

We recommend that participants take the Metro or a taxi to the Marshall Center.

Public parking in this area is sparse.

BY METRO

This is a 10-15 minute walk from the Metro or you can get a taxi from the Metro.

BY TAXI

You should go to 21st Street between C Street and Virginia Avenue NW. This is the east side of the State Department. Enter the small security pavilion to be screened and you then will be directed into the building. Proceed to the Summit registration desk on the left.
