More than ten year-round junior and adult group instructional clinics are offered and led by USPTA Master Tennis Professional Mike O'Connell and his staff at the Indiana University Tennis Center. Head Pro Mike O'Connell has been a USPTA member for over 30 years, was inducted into the USPTA Midwest Hall of Fame in 1998, and was recently named the 2009 USPTA Midwest Pro of the Year. The High Performance Junior Beginner Program, which includes Level 1 (ages 4-5), Level 2 (ages 6-7), Level 3 (ages 8-9), and Level 4 (ages 10+), uses USTA's QuickStart format and is designed to help juniors learn the game fast. Participants in Junior and Adult Beginner clinics learn a range of tennis basics, including the four main tennis strokes: forehand, backhand, serve, and volley. These clinics also cover scoring, sportsmanship, court position, and match play. For those with some experience, the Junior and Adult Intermediate clinics review the basic strokes, while placing more emphasis on movement, scoring, and match play. The emphasis in this level is on ground strokes, court position, and consistency in execution. Junior and Adult Advanced clinic participants can expect a clinic designed for players interested in actively competing in tournaments or leagues. This program includes advanced drills, competitive match play, tactics, strategy, mental toughness skills and conditioning. Tournament Players is a junior clinic geared toward the player seeking a district, sectional, and national ranking and participates in USTA tournaments. Emphasis is on strategy, tactics, conditioning, mental training and competitive play. The IU Tennis Center reports to Recreation, Park and Tourism Studies (RPTS) within the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation (HPER) at Indiana University and promotes the positive health, cultural, physical, mental and social benefits of tennis.
