The next page contains a series of questions to be answered by the student in paragraph format. A separate page or document may be used if needed. Please answer each question to the best of your ability.

Life onboard a sailing ship can present many challenges and requires full participation to provide a positive community experience. Describe an asset you would bring to life onboard Orion.

State a research question you are curious to answer during your time onboard Orion. You will be able to choose a different question for your project.

Detail why you would like to join us this summer. Aside from any academic work what do you hope to gain from your time onboard Orion?

Describe how participation in the Deep Green Wilderness program will contribute to any immediate or long range academic and career plans.

Deep Green Wilderness is able to provide partial scholarship support for those who qualify. Each program has two (2) scholarships available that reduces tuition by 50% for qualified students. Students interested in receiving financial aid please attach a personal statement, illustrating why you deserve a scholarship award. A personal statement provides information the application does not provide- examples include; tell about a character defining moment, a personal challenged faced, a hardship overcome, special goals or objectives, etc.

Applying for scholarship award?

If yes, does the student qualify for free or reduced Lunch?

Tuition is due sixty days before the start of the program, or at the time of enrollment if it is within sixty days. Once enrolled students will receive a packing list, medical form and liability waiver to fill out and sign as well as some background literature to read before joining the boat.

Cancellation Policy

We are sure you will have the experience of a lifetime on our program but if it is necessary to cancel you will receive a full refund of tuition if you cancel 30 days or more before the start of the program. If you cancel within thirty days of the start of the program you will receive an 80% refund of tuition. Please contact Captain Kevin Campion info@deepgreenwilderness.com with any questions
