

2013

Wednesday, Aug 7th

Newark, NJ

Hurricane Sandy Small Business Recovery and Matchmaking Summit

Wednesday, Aug 7th, 2013, 12:00pm - 6:00pm

12:00-1:00 - Registration and Resource Expo

1:15-1:45 - Welcome Remarks

Administrator Karen Mills,
U.S. Small Business Administration

Secretary Shaun Donovan,
U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

1:45-2:30 - Plenary Panel: Opening Comments on the State of Sandy Recovery and Opportunities for Small Businesses

2:45-5:45 - Business Matchmaking

2:45-3:30 - Breakout Session A

- Breaking into the Corporate Supply Chain
- Accessing Capital
- Breaking into the Federal, State and Local Supply Chain
- Local Resources Available to Small Businesses

3:45-4:30 - Breakout Session B

- Breaking into the Corporate Supply Chain
- Accessing Capital
- Breaking into the Federal, State and Local Supply Chain
- Local Resources Available to Small Businesses

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) has played a critical role in the response and recovery efforts in the Sandy-impacted region and is committed to providing small businesses with the access to capital, resources and opportunities to rebuild their businesses.

SBA and the President's Hurricane Sandy Rebuilding Task Force are teaming up to educate and connect small businesses to commercial buyers from the private sector and federal, state and local governments.

The goal is simple: help small businesses in the region to get back on their feet and compete for opportunities in the region.

LOCATION

New Jersey Institute of Technology

University Heights Campus Center
Ballroom A&B
Newark, NJ 07102

Register Today at <https://nj.mybusinessmatches.com>