

Tactical Indoor Defense & Evacuation (TIDE)

Read the student feedback from PFC's first-ever TIDE class...

"Excellent! I learned a lot and had a good time doing it."

- David O.

"It was good to actually do these exercises with an instructor to correct poor habits. I feel that with practice, my family will be safer."

- Rich Z.

"Excellent. Very informative."

- Matt G.

"The final exercise taught me how fast things unfold. Great use of time, mix of lecture and instructor experience."

- Howard A.

"Excellent. Eye-opening. Lots to take home and digest."

- Jim A.

“Seriously valuable... I have a tendency to gobble up the theory presentation and avoid the practical scenarios. It's uncomfortable for me but absolutely necessary.”

- David M.

“The knowledge was endless. any odd question or scenario, there was an easy solution. I was expecting a refresher of room clearing from my police training, but I learned a lot of new techniques.”

- Chris K.

“It was nice to look at things from what the populace is going to have to do, and reinforce the need for a plan "at home" with my wife and family. 10+”

- Kevin S.

“Very knowledgeable training cadre; able to convey concepts very well verbally and physically. Subject matter was very valuable not only personally but professionally.”

- Dean W.

“The one-on-one instruction with every drill was great.”

- James E.

“Instructor knowledge, skills and abilities are top notch.”

- Erica C.

“I liked the number of instructors. I liked the instructors too.”

- Matt F.

“All the instructors were very well versed in the material.”

- Mike C.

“Definitely covered a lot more than I thought we would have had time for.”

- Loring M.

“Exceptional. Awesome. Exceeded my expectations.”

- Ben M.

TIDE will be returning to New York on May 5th which will be followed by the inaugural session of TIDE-2 on May 6th. For more information, check the TIDE links on the class schedule section of this newsletter.
