WORKSHOPS IN NEW YORK

All workshops will take place at the
Support Center for Nonprofit Management,
305 Seventh Avenue @ 27th Street, 11th Floor

ORGANIZATION DEVELOPMENT

COLLABORATIVE EFFECTIVENESS FOR SENIOR LEADERSHIP TEAMS

The performance of senior leadership working as a team sets a tone that reverberates from the reception desk to the board room. If sub-optimal performance by the top management team largely goes unaddressed (which is often the case), the implications for organizational effectiveness are profound. Participants can expect to take away greater clarity and a commitment to effective organizational collaborative processes.

In this session, we will explore:

- ▶ How to create better relationships to increase team performance and collaboration
- ▶ Evaluation of team dynamics

Who should attend:

- ▶ Board members
- ▶ Executive directors and senior level staff

Facilitator: Daniel Doucette
Date: Thursday, January 26
Time: 9:30 am – 4:30 pm
Fee: One Full Day

STRATEGIC ALLIANCES AND COLLABORATIONS

The current climate of reduced funding and growing needs requires nonprofits to make tough choices in order to protect their core programs. In addition, many funders are requiring more evidence of collaboration so that they can be sure that they are not funding duplicate services.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Tools needed to assess an organization's need for partners
- ▶ Ways of identifying and reaching out to potential partners
- ▶ Insights on the challenges to partnerships
- ▶ A life cycle framework for collaborations
- ▶ Elements of strong "linkage" agreements that work for all partners

Who should attend:

- ▶ Executive directors
- ▶ Board members
- ▶ Development and program directors

Facilitator: John Magisano
Date: Thursday, February 2
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

STRATEGIC PLANNING: WHY IT MATTERS TO YOUR ORGANIZATION

What does your organization need to get from a strategic planning process to make it worth the effort? This workshop will explore this question and assist you with designing a process to meet those needs. This workshop is best suited for organizations seriously considering strategic planning or those just starting the process.

In this session, we will explore:

- ▶ Desired outcomes from your strategic planning process
- ▶ Reviewing the major steps of a strategic planning effort
- ▶ Distinguish between strategic and operational planning
- ▶ Clarifying board and staff roles
- ▶ Best process for your organization and who needs to be involved

Who should attend:

- ▶ Executive directors and board members

Facilitator: Marie Zieger
Date: Tuesday, February 28
Time: 9:30 am – 4:30 pm
Fee: One Full Day

SO YOU ARE THINKING OF BECOMING A BOARD LEADER

NEW!

Are you thinking about saying yes to that invitation to become a board officer? Perhaps you've already said yes to a leadership position and are wondering what you signed up to do? Stepping up to leadership is more challenging than ever in these difficult times yet, leading a board can be a rewarding, satisfying experience and an opportunity to make a big difference. This dynamic workshop is designed to help new leaders get their arms around the job of governing a nonprofit organization. In our time together we'll review the basic tool kit for board leadership, look at best practices of board leaders and discuss the opportunities to bring substantive change to your nonprofit.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Review board roles and responsibilities and board/staff relationships
- ▶ Learn methods to govern effectively, including balancing leadership with management oversight
- ▶ Discuss ways to achieve strategic priorities and create and accomplish achievable goals
- ▶ Plan and conduct meetings that are positive and productive
- ▶ Learn to establish and achieve board member expectations

Who should attend:

- ▶ Newly appointed board or executive committee leaders
- ▶ Board members who are considering taking on a leadership role
- ▶ Anyone who wants a review of board leadership principles and practices

Facilitator: Holly Lyttle
Date: Thursday, March 1
Time: 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm
Fee: One Half Day

WORKSHOPS IN NEW YORK

THE POWER OF COLLABORATION

Mission-driven, values-based collaborations can deepen any organization's impact and make an organization more effective in fundraising, advocacy, program delivery and/or administration.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- Identify issues on which they can collaborate
- Best practices of successful collaborations
- Identify potential partners with whom they can work

Who should attend:

- Executive directors and board members of mid-size nonprofit organizations
- Representatives from organizations currently considering a partnership

Facilitator: Frank Abdale
Date: Thursday, March 1
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

PREPARING AND PRESENTING YOUR FINDINGS: THE RESULTS ARE IN, NOW WHAT?

Many nonprofits invest time and energy in measuring outcomes, but don't reap all the rewards of their hard work. They submit findings to their funders, and then move on to the next thing. Don't miss out on opportunities by letting your results sit on a shelf (or in a folder on your computer). Make them work for you! Review them. Learn from them. Share them with your funders, board, staff, and more.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- Strategies to ensure you regularly review and learn from your findings
- Ways to present your findings so they "tell the story of your program"
- What kinds of results are most interesting to particular stakeholders
- When and how best to present those results to your stakeholders

Who should attend:

- Executive directors and program managers
- Fundraising professionals with some prior outcome measurement experience

Facilitator: Laurel Molloy
Date: Thursday, January 19
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half-Day

DASHBOARDS TO ENHANCE BOARD OVERSIGHT

Dashboards can help a board to ask the right questions and to engage in discussions around what matters most to an organization. Dashboards have been utilized for many years in the corporate sector and in some nonprofits to assist decision makers with visual comparative information about current operations and trends important to strategic planning.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- How to develop the skills to create the types of performance dashboards most useful for their organizations
- Examples of how dashboards can enhance almost every area of board responsibility—financial oversight, program evaluation, fundraising, board governance, etc.

Who should attend:

- Board members
- Executive Directors

Facilitator: Michael Davidson
Date: Wednesday, March 14
Time: 5:30 pm – 8:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

STAFF DEVELOPMENT

BUILDING SUPERVISORY RELATIONSHIPS

Most people are promoted to supervisory positions because they have technical expertise. Then they manage staff based on what they did or did not like in their own supervision. This workshop takes the ambiguity out of being a supervisor and identifies the importance of building a partnership between supervisor and employee in order to create an environment of trust, responsibility, and personal accountability.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- Clear and practical steps to establishing or enhancing the supervisory relationship
- How to define, communicate, and elicit performance expectations and working agreements
- Practicing the art of constructive feedback

Who should attend:

- Newly appointed supervisors
- Supervisors who are having difficulty with their direct reports

This workshop should be taken prior to all other workshops for Management & Supervision Certificate enrollees.

Facilitator: Janet Waterston
Date: Tuesday, January 17
Time: 9:30 am – 4:00 pm
Fee: One Full Day

WRITE WHAT YOU MEAN

Are you responsible for reports, correspondence and memos? Do you find that you inspire people when you speak, but their eyes glaze over when they read what you write?

In this workshop, we will explore:

- Getting started when you are stuck
- Conveying your message in active, jargon-free language
- Refining your message for different audiences
- Editing your work quickly

Who should attend:

- Anyone suffering from writers block

You will participate in active writing exercises. Please bring work-related writing samples.

Facilitator: Merrill Black
Date: Friday, January 20
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

INTERIM EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP

Our IEL two-day training outlines the environment during an executive transition, and what is required of an Interim Executive Leader to help stabilize the organization, in what is typically a very challenging and chaotic season in the life of a nonprofit.

In these workshops, we will explore:

- The Executive transition process (specific roles of the IEL, board and transition consultant)
- The reality of being an effective IEL (challenges presented, the skills and perspective required)
- How to handle the emotional aspects of dealing with staff and board dynamics of organizations undergoing an executive transition
- How the Support Center's IEL referrals work

WORKSHOPS IN NEW YORK

Who should attend:

- ▶ Current and former executive directors who are considering a career as an IEL
- ▶ Mid- to late-career professionals who were once executive directors and now have independent consulting practices
- ▶ Organizational development consultants and other nonprofit professionals who want to increase their knowledge on interim executive management.

Date: Monday, January 23 & Tuesday January 24
Time: 9:00 am – 4:30 pm
Fee: $450 Includes all training materials & IEL Toolkit CD-Rom

DEALING WITH THE DIFFICULT EMPLOYEE: TURNAROUND OR TERMINATION?

Few supervisory tasks are as challenging and frustrating as dealing with performance problems. Whether you're dealing with an employee who doesn't have the right skills or one whose attitude and behavior doesn't meet your expectations, your job is to provide the supervision, coaching and management to turn the situation around—or take the necessary steps to dismiss the employee.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Coaching and constructive feedback for a variety of performance and behavioral issues
- ▶ Developing a performance improvement plan with specific expectations and standards
- ▶ Maintaining appropriate documentation to inform the employee of issues and protect the organization
- ▶ When and how to initiate and conduct a termination

Who should attend:

- ▶ Anyone who has supervisory responsibilities.

Facilitator: Janet Waterston
Date: Tuesday, February 7
Time: 9:30 am – 4:00 pm
Fee: One Full Day

INTERVIEWING FOR KEEPS: FROM RECRUITMENT TO RETENTION

Finding—and keeping—the right person for the job sometimes seems like an insurmountable task. What interview questions can you ask to find out what you really need to know without crossing the line into legal no-nos? This workshop takes the element of chance out of the process and lays the foundation for identifying, hiring, and retaining the most qualified candidates.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Steps to prepare and organize the interview
- ▶ How to ask and probe for meaningful information—the stuff you really want to know
- ▶ Ways to clarify organizational values, mission and expectations
- ▶ Legal considerations and biases that can impact the selection process
- ▶ How to follow up the interview to ensure retention

Who should attend:

- ▶ Human resource professionals
- ▶ Anyone who with hiring responsibilities

Facilitator: Janet Waterston
Date: Tuesday, March 13
Time: 9:30 am – 4:00 pm
Fee: One Full Day

FUNDRAISING

2000 CHARACTERS OR LESS: GRANT WRITING FOR ONLINE APPLICATIONS

The requirement to write and submit online grant applications has become almost ubiquitous. Although the core elements of successful grant writing remain the same, the need to edit oneself and communicate succinctly is greater than ever—and more time consuming.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Successful strategies for writing compelling online applications
- ▶ Samples of successful applications
- ▶ Current application or boilerplate with colleagues and a proven grant writer

Who should attend:

- ▶ Anyone with fundraising responsibilities

Facilitator: Frank Abdale
Date: Wednesday, February 1
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

STEWARDSHIP: THE ART OF THANKING DONORS

Think of securing a gift as the beginning of a long-term relationship. This workshop will teach you how to cultivate these relationships because donors who give repeatedly and in larger amounts are key to a successful fundraising program.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Ways to thank and recognize individual donors, foundations and corporations
- ▶ Creative ways to keep donors involved in your organization
- ▶ Stewardship tracking systems to ensure that your funders receive updates on how their contribution is making an impact

Who should attend:

- ▶ Development directors and other fundraising professionals
- ▶ Executive directors

Facilitator: Robin Rosenbluth
Date: Wednesday, February 15
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

TAKE YOUR FUNDRAISING TO THE NEXT LEVEL

This workshop, designed for those who shape organizational planning and capacity building, will provide tools and tips for upgrading fundraising strategies in this time of economic stress. We will use a Fund Raising Readiness Audit to show you how to improve your fundraising success rate.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ How to use your organization's present life stage as the springboard to the next level
- ▶ Ways to engage the board in donor cultivation
- ▶ Fresh approaches to diversify your funding streams

Who should attend:

- ▶ Executive directors and board members
- ▶ Senior development staff

Facilitator: Carolyn Curran
Date: Wednesday, February 29
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

WORKSHOPS IN NEW YORK

50 ASKS IN 50 WEEKS: HOW TO JUMPSTART YOUR SMALL DEVELOPMENT OFFICE

Are you raising money for a nonprofit organization with a small development office or no paid fundraising staff? Do you want to raise more money? Are you stuck in a rut with your fundraising program? Do you want to feel motivated and re-energized about fundraising? Do you need an action plan? If you answered yes to any of these questions this workshop is for you.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Techniques for asking for gifts in smarter, more efficient ways
- ▶ Basics of event planning, personal solicitation, bulk mail, and grant writing
- ▶ How to identify 50 new prospects for your organization

Who should attend:

- ▶ Entry and mid-level development directors
- ▶ Executive directors and development directors in organizations with small development offices (0-3 paid development staff)

NOTE: All participants will receive a copy of the facilitator's book, 50 Asks in 50 Weeks: A Guide to Better Fundraising for Your Small Development Shop

Facilitator: Amy Eisenstein
Date: Wednesday, March 7
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

FUNDRAISING TOOLKIT: EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO START BUILDING A FUNDRAISING PLAN

This workshop is designed to give fundraisers, nonprofit leaders, and board members — in established nonprofit organizations — an overview of the all the elements that go into a successful development department. Major fundraising methods will be reviewed as well as the underlying principles required to create and evaluate the best mix for an organization. Participants are expected to have a basic understanding of nonprofit organizations and some exposure to fundraising. This is not a course on how to start a nonprofit organization.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Evaluating fundraising methods in the context of their own organizations
- ▶ Knowledge to begin the fundraising process

Who should attend:

- ▶ Board members and executive directors
- ▶ Development staff

Facilitator: Bonnie Osinski
Date: Thursday, March 8
Time: 9:30 am – 4:30 pm
Fee: One Full Day

WRITING WINNING GRANT PROPOSALS

While nonprofits complain about the difficulty of obtaining funding from foundations, foundations complain about the scarcity of really good proposals. In this workshop we will discuss what makes a project compelling to a funder and how to paint a vibrant picture of your organization and programs through the limited format of a typical proposal.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ The language of proposal writing
- ▶ The eleven basic components of a proposal
- ▶ How to “attack” the RFP
- ▶ How to develop strong program objectives

Who should attend:

- ▶ Proposal writers with less than three years of experience
- ▶ Executive directors, program directors and development directors with proposal writing job responsibilities

Facilitator: Pat Richter
Date: Thursday, March 15
Time: 9:30 am – 4:30 pm
Fee: One Full Day

MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS

THE ABC'S OF SOCIAL MEDIA PROGRAMS FOR NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

Social Media programs can be very powerful in helping your organization advance its goals and objectives. This series of workshops are designed to complement each other and result in a comprehensive guide to learning how to develop and execute an effective social media campaign within your nonprofit organization. Each session can also be attended individually.

Workshop I: Should Your Organization Embrace Social Media?

Workshop II: How to Build and Execute Social Media Programs within Nonprofit Organizations

Workshop III: How Your Organization Can Work as a Team to Optimize Social Media Efforts

In these workshops, we will explore:

- ▶ Overview of social media technologies, platforms and tools
- ▶ How to determine what your organization's social media objectives and plan should be
- ▶ Case studies of successful social media programs within nonprofit organizations: what was achieved and how
- ▶ Organization guidelines and policies necessary for effective use of social media programs

Who should attend:

- ▶ Board members, executive directors and senior management
- ▶ Development and program directors

Facilitator: Marian Stier
Date: Wednesday February 1, 15, and 29
Time: 1:30 pm – 4:30pm
Fee: One Half-Day each, or 20% off if you prepay upfront for all three

BREAKTHROUGH E-NEWSLETTERS: FIVE STEPS TO SHAPING COMMUNICATIONS THAT CONNECT

Designing and regularly distributing the right e-newsletter is a proven way to strengthen relationships with your organization's key audiences and to motivate them to act. E-newsletters motivate conversations with donors, volunteers, clients; showcase the impact of your organization's work and position your organization as a thought leader in your field.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Defining realistic goals for your e-newsletter and who you have to reach to achieve them
- ▶ The right approach—content, style, how much interactivity with readers
- ▶ Designing the most effective delivery—frequency, “look and feel”
- ▶ The mechanics—opt-in vs. double opt-in, list management, in-house vs. outsource

Who should attend:

- ▶ Anyone with the responsibility of producing their agency's e-newsletter

Facilitator: Nancy Schwartz
Date: Thursday, February 16
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half Day

Princeton Area Community Foundation
15 Princess Road, Lawrenceville, NJ 08648

MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS FOR NONPROFITS

Each nonprofit organization needs to consider an effective marketing plan as an important part of implementing a strategic plan to meet its mission. Marketing and communications impact the nonprofit's ability to promote events and programs, attract volunteers and donors, and raise its profile with the public, foundations and corporations.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Developing and assessing marketing plans
- ▶ Tools and resources to help nonprofits succeed.

Who should attend:

- ▶ Board Members
- ▶ Executive Directors
- ▶ Program and Development Directors

Facilitator: Adrienne Rubin

Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
Fee: One Half-Day

NEW LEADERSHIP FOR NAVIGATING AND THRIVING IN CHALLENGING TIMES

We are experiencing unprecedented global changes and challenges that are calling for new leadership. An uncertain economy, competition for contributions, smaller budgets/fewer resources, higher need for services, new standards for accountability and results—are part of the new environment in which nonprofit leaders work. Every day leaders make decisions about budgets, jobs, and where to cut and where to continue investing resources. Thriving in this environment requires new leadership. Invest in your organization's future by learning core leadership principles for navigating challenges with vision, reason and heart.

In this workshop, we will explore:

- ▶ Techniques for balancing operational control with innovation

Who should attend:

- ▶ Board Chairs
- ▶ Executive directors
- ▶ Development directors
- ▶ Community leaders

Facilitator: Catherine M. Vaucher
Date: Tuesday February 21
Time: 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
